THE FRENCH EMPRESS on RIBBONS.-THE FRENCH EMPRESS on RIBBONS.—

The Empress Edgenie, the French papers by the Niagara state, has resolved to appear in a magnificent constume on the occasion of the wedding of her fair relative to the Duc de Malakoff. Her dreas is to be profusely trimmed with ribbons; and having become quite emanoured of the ribbon at yield of embellishment, she has requested all the ladies of the court to follow her example. The quality, colors, and peculiarity of the ribbons in question, however, are unique, as well as recherche, and elleit universal admiration. We believe nobody has then, in this country, except LICHTENSTEIN, and the country, except LICHTENSTEIN, and the particular the demand that would follow throughout the world of fashion, for anything so exclusively selected by the taste of the Imperative, the agent of LICHTENSTEIN, in Paris, bought up all the remaining contribbons in the foreign market, and they constitute the general attraction at the "Temple of La Mode," No. 367 Broadway. Chinese ribbons to match the new fashioned silks is winst LICHTENSTEIN slways prides himself upon keeping on hand in a large assortance, for ribbons are now driving all other articles out of consideration as dress trimmings. He is also able to supply every taste with Paris millinery goods, plain and fancy bount silks, satius, velvets, French flow rs, ostrich feathers, &c. Beside this, he selfs all his very superior goods at the lowest market prices. This fact, and the unvaried politeness of his attendants, account for the crowd that continually fillehis a agasin of rovelties.
